(c) The recognized home of a staff member shall be determined at the time he or she takes up his or her duties, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) the country of the recognized home shall be the country of which the staff member is regarded as a national pursuant to Regulation 4.7. However, in exceptional and compelling circumstances, the Director General may authorize the designation of a country other than that of which the staff member is a national, upon production of satisfactory evidence by the staff member that he or she maintained his or her normal residence in such other country for a prolonged period immediately preceding appointment, that he or she continues to have close family or personal ties in that country, and that taking home leave there would not be inconsistent with the purposes and intent of Regulation 5.3;

(2) the place of a staff member's recognized home shall be where he or she last resided in the country of the recognized home prior to appointment, unless the staff member can produce satisfactory evidence that his or her closest ties were in another place in the same country;

(3) if a staff member served with another public international organization immediately before his or her appointment, the place of his or her recognized home shall be determined as though the entire previous service with the other organization had been with the International Bureau.

(d) The Director General may decide, either on his or her own initiative, after the staff member concerned has been heard, or on the duly justified request of the staff member concerned, to change the determination of the country and/or place of the recognized home of a staff member, if he or she determines:

(1) that the original designation was the result of incomplete information or of a misinterpretation of the facts; or

(2) that a change in the national status of the staff member concerned, territorial modifications, the effects of war, or of other political circumstances so warrant.

(e) Exceptionally, a staff member may be authorized to travel, on home leave, to a country other than that of the recognized home, if the Director General considers that family circumstances or reasons beyond the staff member's control so warrant, and provided that this does not result in additional expenditure for the International Bureau.

(f) The first home leave for an eligible staff member shall fall due in the second calendar year after the one in which he or she is appointed or in which entitlement is acquired.

⁹² Amended with effect from May 1, 2014, and January 1, 2018 (please refer to Office Instruction No. 21/2014 and Information Circular No. 31/2017).

STAFF REGULATIONS AND RULES
OF THE INTERNATIONAL BUREAU OF WIPO

- (g) Subject to the exigencies of the service, home leave may be taken at any time during the calendar year in which it falls due.
- (h) In exceptional circumstances, staff members may be granted advance home leave, provided that not less than 12 months of qualifying service have been completed or that not less than 12 months of qualifying service have elapsed since the date of return from their last home leave. Where advance home leave has been granted, the year in which the next home leave falls due shall not be affected.
- (i) If a staff member delays taking home leave beyond the calendar year in which it falls due, such delayed leave may be taken without altering the time of his or her next and succeeding home leave entitlements, provided that not less than 12 months of qualifying service elapse between the date of the staff member's return from the delayed home leave and the date of the next home leave departure. However, should the Director General or his or her authorized representative decide that exceptional circumstances arising from the exigencies of the service make it necessary for a staff member's home leave to be delayed beyond the calendar year in which it falls due, such delayed leave may be taken without altering the time of his or her next and subsequent home leave entitlements, provided that not less than six months of qualifying service are completed between the date of the staff member's return from the delayed home leave and the date of his or her next home leave departure.
- (j) A staff member may be required to take his or her home leave in conjunction with travel on official business, due regard being paid to his or her personal interests and those of his or her family.
- (k) Subject to the provisions of Chapter VII, staff members authorized to travel on home leave shall be entitled to travel time for themselves and to payment of outward and return travel expenses for them and their eligible family members for the journey between their official duty station and the place of their recognized home, or any other place in the same country provided that this does not result in additional expenditure for the International Bureau. When staff members who elect to receive a lump sum payment change the destination of their home leave to any other place in the same country that does not result in additional expenditure for the International Bureau, the calculation of the lump sum payment shall be based on the other place, not the place of their recognized home.
- (l) Eligible family members shall travel at the same time as the staff member taking home leave; however, exceptions may be authorized if the exigencies of the service or other special circumstances prevent staff members and their eligible family members from travelling together.
- (m) If staff members are spouses and are employed by an organization applying the United Nations common system of salaries and allowances and entitled to home leave, each shall have the choice either of exercising his or her own home leave entitlement or of accompanying the spouse. The staff member accompanying the spouse shall be allowed travelling time not exceeding that which would have been authorized had he or she chosen to exercise his or her own home leave entitlement. Dependent children whose parents are both staff members entitled to home leave may accompany either parent, provided that the frequency of travel does not exceed once every two years.
- (n) A staff member travelling on home leave shall normally be required to spend a reasonable portion of such leave in the country of the recognized home. The Director General may request a staff member, on his or her return from home leave, to provide satisfactory evidence that this requirement has been fully met.
- (o) This Rule shall not apply to temporary staff members.

entitlement or, if annual leave is exhausted, charged as special leave without pay. Not more than three consecutive days of uncertified sick leave may be taken at a time.

(d) Certified Sick Leave

Except with the authorization of the Director General, no staff member shall be granted sick leave for a period of more than three consecutive working days without producing a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner, to the effect that he or she is unable to perform his or her duties and stating the probable duration of his or her absence. Such certificate shall, except in circumstances beyond the control of the staff member, be produced no later than the end of the tenth working day following the initial absence from duty.

(e) Long Term Sick Leave and Special Leave for Prolonged Illness

(1) A staff member who, pursuant to paragraph (b) above, is entitled to sick leave at half pay, may choose to use accrued annual leave entitlements in order to receive full pay. In the event that the staff member, following the initial period of three or nine months, respectively, of sick leave at full pay, returns to duty on a half-time basis during the ensuing period of sick leave at half pay, the staff member may receive full pay by using the entitlement to sick leave at half pay or by using half-days of accrued annual leave entitlements, if he or she agrees to such an arrangement.

(2) Staff members who, pursuant to paragraph (b) above, are on sick leave with half-pay after exhausting their sick leave on full pay and who cannot be maintained on full-pay status through a combination of sick leave on half pay with accrued annual leave or half-time duty, shall receive half their net salary and post adjustment, where applicable. In addition, they shall receive, where applicable, the full amount of the dependency allowance, language allowance, education grant, rental subsidy and field allowances and benefits.

(3) Staff members who have exhausted all entitlements to paid sick leave, as well as their accrued annual leave entitlements, may in exceptional circumstances apply to the Director General through the Director of HRMD for special leave for prolonged illness.

(4) Special leave for prolonged illness may be granted by the Director General, but only with half pay or without pay. The purposes for which such special leave may be granted shall normally be to provide a bridge to a staff member's recovery and resumption of duties, or pending the finding of incapacity by reason of injury or illness for further service within the meaning of the Regulations of the UNJSPF, and the consequent payment of a disability benefit. To receive consideration for special leave, a staff member should provide an appropriate medical certificate or, in the case of a pending request for the finding of incapacity, as referred to above, evidence of a petition to the UNJSPF for payment of disability benefits. The interests of the service to which the staff member is assigned must, however, be safeguarded.

(f) Obligations of Staff Members

(1) All sick leave must be approved on behalf of the Director General.

(2) Staff members shall be responsible for informing their supervisors as soon as possible of any absence due to illness or injury. Where practicable, they shall, before absenting themselves, report to the medical adviser of the International Bureau.

OF THE INTERNATIONAL BUREAU OF WIPO

(3) A staff member may at any time be required to submit a medical certificate as to his or her state of health or to undergo examination by a medical practitioner designated by the Director General. When a medical condition impairs a staff member's ability to perform his or her functions, the staff member may be directed not to attend the office and requested to seek treatment from a duly qualified medical practitioner. The staff member shall comply promptly with any direction or request under this Rule.

(4) While on sick leave or special leave for prolonged illness a staff member shall not leave the area of the duty station without the prior approval of the Director General.

(5) Staff members shall immediately notify the International Bureau of any case of contagious disease occurring in their household, or of any quarantine order affecting them. A staff member who, as a result of such circumstances, is asked not to attend the office shall receive full salary and other benefits, allowances and entitlements for the period of the authorized absence.

(g) Review of Decisions Relating to Sick Leave

(1) If the Director General is satisfied that the staff member on sick leave is able to resume his or her duties, the Director General may refuse to grant further sick leave or cancel the leave already granted; however, if the staff member so requests, the matter shall be referred to an independent practitioner acceptable to both the Director General and the staff member or a medical board. The medical board shall be composed of:

- (i) a medical practitioner selected by the staff member;
- (ii) a medical practitioner designated by the Director General; and
- (iii) a third medical practitioner, who shall be selected by agreement between the other two members and who shall not be a medical officer of the International Bureau.

(2) Any request for referral to an independent practitioner or medical board pursuant to subparagraph (1) above shall be addressed to the Director General within thirty (30) calendar days following the notification of the contested decision. The Director General may waive this time limit if in his or her opinion this is justified by exceptional circumstances.

(h) Periods of sick leave, whether on full or half pay, shall not affect the accrual of service credits towards periodical salary increment, home leave, termination indemnity and repatriation grant. Entitlement to annual leave shall accrue during periods of one or more full months of sick leave provided the staff member receives full pay during the relevant period of sick leave.

(i) When illness lasting more than three consecutive working days occurs during annual leave or home leave, the conversion of these days into sick leave may be granted provided that an appropriate medical certificate is produced. In such circumstances, the staff member concerned shall be responsible for submitting a request for sick leave together with the medical certificate as soon as possible and in any event as soon as duties are resumed.

(j) Entitlement to sick leave shall lapse on separation from service.

ANNEX V¹⁷⁸CALCULATION OF TIME LIMITS FOR THE PURPOSES OF CHAPTER X AND CHAPTER XI

Time limits indicated in Chapter X and Chapter XI shall be calculated according to the following principles:

- (a) Time limits shall start on the day following the day on which the relevant event occurred, including the receipt of a document or communication of a decision. All dates and time limits shall be calculated based on the date at the headquarters of the International Bureau in Geneva.
- (b) When a time limit is expressed as a certain number of days, it shall expire on the day on which the last day of the count has been reached.
- (c) If the expiration of any time limit falls on a Saturday, Sunday or official WIPO holiday, it shall expire on the first working day thereafter.
- (d) When a time limit is suspended, the period of suspension is not included in the computation of time. Example: A staff member has filed an appeal before the Appeal Board and receives the Director General's reply to the appeal on December 15. The rejoinder should normally be submitted within 30 calendar days, that is, by January 14 of the next calendar year (Rule 11.5.3(g)). However, the Appeal Board has an annual recess during the holiday season from December 24 to January 4 (12 calendar days) and during the recess, all time limits before the Appeal Board are suspended for the duration of the recess (Rule 11.5.1(k)). In such a case, the time limit for the submission of the rejoinder is extended by 12 calendar days (i.e., the duration of the recess) and the rejoinder must be submitted by January 26 of the next calendar year. If January 26 is a Saturday, Sunday or WIPO official holiday, paragraph (c) above applies.
